ORDER

GORTON, J.

Now before the Court is plaintiff Emory Snell's "Motion for Fraud Finding and to Withdraw 'Relocation' TRO Application and request for 3006A Counsel" (Docket # 170). For the reasons stated below, the Court will deny the motion.

The Court writes for the parties and assumes the reader's familiarity with this action.

On July 18, 2022, Snell filed a motion for a temporary restraining order to prevent the defendants from moving him to a different location in the prison so that roof repairs could be made to the area in which he was confined. (Docket # 151). On August 11, 2022, the Court denied the motion. (Docket # 164). In the present motion, Snell seeks to withdraw the July 18, 2022, motion. Because that motion has already been adjudicated, the motion to withdraw it is DENIED as moot.

In the present motion Snell also asks the Court to find that the defendants committed "fraud" by stating in their opposition to Snell's motion to prevent the rehousing that Snell has "indicate[d] he is receiving ongoing care from Wellpath through doctors' visits and surgery," and that prisoner transfers are at the discretion of the Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Correction. Neither statement was material to the Court's denial of the motion, and the statements were not false. Therefore, insofar as Snell asks the Court to find that defense counsel committed fraud on the Court, his motion is DENIED.

Finally, Snell requests appointment of counsel under the Criminal Justice Act but that Act does not provide for appointment of counsel in a non-habeas civil action. See 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(a).

Accordingly, the "Motion for Fraud Finding and to Withdraw 'Relocation' TRO Application and request for 3006A Counsel" (Docket # 170) is DENIED in its entirety.

So ordered.
